Dear Sandra

Many thanks for your enquiry and yes I would be very happy to pop down to Tisbury to run a course for your staff.

The price for a private course is up to 12 people, so the more the merrier and it depends on the number of hours you want. The usual workplace options are the 1 day Emergency First Aid at Work (click the link for details) or the half day Basic Life Support. For both of these, each accredited certificate costs £8. If you would prefer a shorter bespoke course with free certificates of attendance, then I just charge for my time e.g. 2 hours at £175, 3 hours at £250. All the costs include a manual per person.

Do give me a ring on the number below if you would rather chat through the options,

Regards

Louise

Dear Louise,

I'd just like to enquire whether you would offer a First Aid course in our workplace.

There are 4 staff members in total, but some of the councillors may want to join in too.

Please could you give me some idea of your pricing?

thanks,

Sandra
